

Disability Services and Programs for Students

Chloe Wheeler

Submitted by Jana Garnett

Chloe Wheeler is kind, caring and a talented student. As a valued member of the DSPS Coaching Program, Chloe is an effective advocate who seeks out the resources and support needed to effectively accomplish her goals. In addition, Chloe is a compassionate listener that provides encouragement to others. Chloe will continue to break through barriers in the future as a Math and Physics major.

Chloe's Words of Gratitude

I am so grateful for all the people who helped me succeed in my time at SBCC. I want to thank my academic counselor, Jamie Griggs, who always helped me with my countless questions throughout the year. I want to thank my DSPS counselor, Katrina Pesl, who connected me with countless supporting resources— she connected me to Natalie Holdren, who I want to give thanks to for her continuous patience, kindness, and reassurance. I want to give special thanks to everyone who was with me in Natalie's coaching group, as they all helped me be more comfortable and confident in my own skin and are a group that I can lean on when things are rough. I would also like to thank two of my professors here at SBCC, professor Kimberly Monda (English) and professor Michael Young (Physics). They are the most amazing professors I have ever had and I am grateful that I had the opportunity to be their student. Thank you so much to everyone who has been a part of my life here at SBCC. I am so lucky to have met the people that I did, and I am going to miss SBCC and its people immensely.