

School of Justice Studies

Kenna Mayer

Submitted by Anne Redding

Kenna, you are smart, intellectually curious, and have an infectious good attitude. You make every class a little brighter, literally and figuratively. And you have great taste in music! This award is reserved for the best of the best of our students. You have earned it and you deserve it. Thank you for your dedication to your education, now and in the future. The School of Justice Studies is proud to call you our own. You have our continued support in perpetuity.
